BRITISH SHIPS REACH BILBAO UNDER FIRE

Safety Week To Open on Monday

PROGRAM FOR DAILY EVENTS IS ANNOUNCED

Emphasis Placed on Public Health and City Beautification as Preparations Completed for Series of Events—Care in Driving Urged.

Participating in National Safety Week for the first time, Vernon Monday will inaugurate a program of education concerning the perils of reckless driving, the need for greater safety in industry and the importance of public health.

The portion of next week's program devoted to safety will be under the direction of the Vernon Safety Council, while the Wilbar County Health Committee will be in charge of the public health program and the Chamber of Commerce will conduct a campaign of city beautification.

Plans Complete.

Final arrangements for the safety campaign were completed Thursday night at a meeting of a Safety Council committee at the residence of Dr. R. C. Stokes. Plans for the annual clean-up week were announced today by M. G. Neathery, City Sanitary Officer, who also announced a representative of the Texas Pure Food Division, Department of Health, would be in Vernon Monday to inspect all drug stores, grocery stores, wholesale houses and food handlers of all types.

Safety Week will be inaugurated Monday with "Safe Driving Day" and safety posters will be placed in windows, schools and on billboards under the supervision of Mrs. Horace Lovelady and Mrs. W. C. Weir. Tuesday will be known as "Safe Walking Day" while Wednesday will be designated "Industrial Safety Day," with the program under the direction of Charles Coughlin and R. C. Williams. Thursday will be known as "Home Safety Day" and the Parent-Teachers Association will sponsor a special program in the schools under the direction of Mrs. Y. H. Babasin. National Child Health Day will also be designated "Child Safety Day."

Tuesday will also be designated "Public Sanitation Day," in connection with which Mr. Neathery announced that outhouses will be cleaned free of charge for all who are unable to pay for the service.

City To Move Trash.

In announcing the start Monday of a clean-up campaign, Mr. Neathery said, "The city truck will haul trash, cans, and other refuse from the alleys only. Everyone is asked to clean up his premises, putting all rubbish in piles at the edges of the alleys where it can be picked up. Care must be taken that the alleys are not obstructed to the extent that cars cannot pass. Residents are requested to be careful and under no circumstances place trash, weeds or other rubbish in borrow pits or drainage ditches since our water drainage system requires open ditches at all times.

"It is the desire of all concerned that we have the cleanest city in West Texas, and with the help of every citizen and the organizations here we will work together for this end."

Mr. Neathery also announced receipt of a report from the Department of Health in Austin of a report on the city water supply in which it was declared free from contamination.

STATE HEALTH OFFICER INVITED TO VISIT VERNON

An invitation to Dr. George W. Cox, State Public Health Officer, to attend the annual Child Health Day activities in Vernon on April 30 has been extended by a committee composed of County Judge M. G. Poole, Chairman, Will I. Stephens of the Wilbar County Health Committee, Mrs. Ruby Riperton, County Health Nurse, and Ira V. Younger, chairman of the health festival.

The committee requested Dr. Cox to send a representative from the State Health Department in the event that he could not attend.

All participants in the festival will be asked to attend practices next week. Entrants in the May pole drill will practice next Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, and all others taking part will practice Thursday at 1 p. m., according to present plans.

BODY OF RANCH EMPLOYEE FOUND IN CONCHO RIVER

San Angelo, April 23. (AP)—Henry Morris, 65, long time ranch employee at Water Valley, 22 miles north of here, was drowned in North Concho River there shortly before noon Thursday, J. T. Mathison, coroner, returned a verdict of suicide after Sheriff's Deputies investigated.

Morris' body was found with the arms and legs tightly trussed with twine, in the river a short time after he had left his home.

Survivors include the widow and five children.

Harlem's "Messiah" Wordless in Jail

New York, April 23. (AP)—Harlem's septa-tintured "God" was in jail today.

The self-appointed Messiah of Lenox Avenue, Manhattan's broad thoroughfare which bisects the highest Negro community in the world, was brought back from a segment of his "kingdom" in Millford, Conn., and booked on a charge of felonious assault.

Both myth and man, the squat, bland-faced little author of unctious phrases, described by uncounted thousands of his followers as "God" but by more practical biographers as a one-time Baltimore handyman who aspired to higher things, sat hunched on a jail cell cot, wordless.

UNION BATTLE IN KANSAS FATAL FOR TEXAN

Columbus, Kan., April 23. (AP)—Official action in the death Thursday of one of nine persons wounded by gunfire in a clash of rival mining unions at Galena, Kan., April 17, Thursday night awaited the return to Columbus of County Attorney Joe Henbest.

Lavice Miller, 22, Wichita Falls, Texas, a miner, died in a Joplin, Mo., hospital with pneumonia which followed gunshot wounds he suffered in the miners' outbreak.

Assistant County Attorney A. L. Majors said murder charges could be filed in connection with Miller's death. The decision on the action to be taken, however, rested with Henbest who was in Topeka Thursday.

Henbest already has filed assault charges against 10 members of the International Miners union affiliated with the John L. Lewis Committee for Industrial Organization.

The gunfire occurred during a Sunday afternoon parade of tri-state miners past headquarters of the CIO union at Galena. There was a volley of shots and eight miners and a 15-year-old boy fell wounded.

SERVICES FOR VICTIM OF CLASH PLANNED SATURDAY

Wichita Falls, April 23.—Funeral services for Lavice Miller, fatally wounded April 17, in a clash of union miners and CIO organizers during a parade, are planned Saturday at Ardmore, Okla. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller of this city were at their son's bedside when death came.

Miller had gone to work in the lead mines at Pitcher, Okla., last month after serving three years in the U. S. Army at Fort Silas. Survivors include the parents, a brother and three sisters, all of Wichita Falls.

CHECK ON CONSTRUCTION COSTS BOOSTS BUILDING

New York, April 23. (AP)—With a curtailment of the recent drastic rise in construction costs, the increase in residential building over the country is exceeding first-of-the-year predictions.

Builders and statisticians had predicted a 35 to 40 per cent increase over 1936. If the boom continues, the increase will be well above 50 per cent.

Reports to the F. W. Dodge Corporation, which compiles building data for the 37 states, east of the Rocky Mountains, show residential construction of $90,167,000 for March and $231,570,000 for the first three months of 1937.

Greenville Gets Convention.

Corsicana, April 23. (AP)—Greenville was unanimously selected as the 1938 meeting place for the third district of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs at the final business session here Thursday. The awards committee announced that in the senior clubs oral reports contest Greenville Monday Review Club and Atlanta Woman's Club tied for first place.

Trusty Escapes.

Huntsville, Texas, April 23. (AP)—Odds Savage, 51, who was serving a 10-year burglary conviction given by the Huntsville County Jail, escaped from the Central State Prison Farm near Sugarland yesterday. He was missed when the prisoners at Camp No. 3, all trusties, were locked up for the night.

Exemption Granted.

Washington, April 23. (AP)—The Petroleum Corporation of America received exemption from the Securities Commission Thursday from registration under the 1933 utility holding company act. The Commission found the Corporation's holdings of utility stocks were "incidental" to its general investment business.

MARTIAL LAW REQUESTED IN SOIL PROGRAM

Uniform Practices in Five-State Region Requested in Message to President After Conference at Guymon, Okla.—Many Implements Asked.

Guymon, Okla., April 23. (AP)—Martial law enforcement of uniform soil practices in the five-state dust bowl to stop land-eroding "black blizzards" was asked of President Roosevelt today.

Thirty business men and farmers in the Texas and Oklahoma Panhandles and Southern Kansas who met here last night telegraphed it is "imperative that the Federal Government declare an existing emergency and place martial law in effect throughout the dust bowl" in Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico, Colorado and Kansas.

Action Sought.

"Drastic action" is necessary, the telegram said, "for the preservation of life and property."

Giles Miller, Guymon publisher, was chairman of the meeting. "We must get the soil conservation work under one direction," Miller said today. "The Government must act. It's not a community affair, or a state affair, it's a five-state affair."

"Now there are too many different opinions, the farmers hesitate and the thing just won't work out with each person following his individual idea. The methods so far have been ineffective because they aren't uniform."

"One farmer or group of farmers may list and plant row crops to hold soil, and then a neighbor's farm will blow over onto his and choke off his crop."

System Wanted.

"Under martial law, all the farmers in the dust bowl would have to adopt similar measures. We figure this dust blowing can be stopped and we want the Federal Government to do it."

The group asked that "an army of tractors and lists" be used to cover the area "systematically under orders, beginning at the south and west side of the dust bowl and leaving no cultivated land untouched until the entire area is covered."

DUST CLOUDS COVER TEXAS PLAINS SECTION

(By the Associated Press)

Texas Plains farmers, who last week-end smiled on rains that benefited grain crops, were frowning today on dust clouds that threatened to counteract the benefits of precipitation. Plainview, Lubbock and Amarillo reported a heavy dust hanging over their areas. A 10-to-15-mile wind was blowing the dust southeastward.

Dr. L. L. Cline of the Dallas office of the weather bureau said the dust may penetrate the State as far as Dallas.

NON-SUIT DECLARED IN DAMAGE CASE IN VERNON

A non-suit was granted Thursday afternoon by District Judge C. Y. Welch on motion of the plaintiff in the damage suit of Dr. Jo Anna Campbell of Wichita Falls vs. the Wichita Falls Bus Company. The case opened here Thursday morning before a Forty-sixth District Court jury and a non-suit was accepted after a few witnesses had testified for the plaintiff.

Damages of $30,000 were sought by Dr. Campbell, who alleged that injuries she received in a bus accident near Oklahoma last December had compelled her to abandon practice as an osteopath.

COURT NEARS END OF TERM IN WILBAR

Peit jurors for the present term of Forty-sixth District Court here were dismissed Thursday afternoon by District Judge C. Y. Welch. Non-jury cases are to be heard in the final week of the term of six weeks, beginning Monday.

Divorces were granted Thursday afternoon in the following suits: Sallie Whitman vs. Charles Whitman, Mamie Zoch vs. Anton Zoch, Bettie Laird vs. Otis Laird, Beryl Hanes vs. O. E. Hanes, Ethelene Dunbar vs. Paul Dunbar.

PRESIDENT DISCUSSES TRIP TO GULF WITH TWO TEXANS

Washington, April 23. (AP)—Two Texans told President Roosevelt Thursday that if he wanted plenty of oil and mackerel during his Gulf fishing trip next week a fine spot to visit would be off Port Aransas near Corpus Christi.

Representative Kleberg of Corpus Christi and Roy Miller, former Mayor of that city, said they talked with the President about his fishing plans and asked him if possible to put in at that port.

Exemption Granted.

Washington, April 23. (AP)—The Petroleum Corporation of America received exemption from the Securities Commission Thursday from registration under the 1933 utility holding company act. The Commission found the Corporation's holdings of utility stocks were "incidental" to its general investment business.

VERNON BAND SOLOISTS AT PAMPA WIN HONORS

J. J. Slausonhop and Herbert Maas took first place honors in the Northern Division State Band and Orchestra solo contests at Pampa Tuesday, according to word received by Director E. W. Shepherd of the Vernon High School Band.

Slausonhop was entered in the clarinet division and Maas in the cornet division. Both received grades of "highly superior."

Winning second honors were Bobby Messick in the clarinet section and Bobby McDonald in the trombone section. They received "superior" grades. The boys were accompanied to Pampa by Frank Coulter.

They remained in Pampa Friday, where they were joined during the day by remaining members of the band for competition in marching and playing contests and drum majors and twirlers' events.

Nine members of the band have been selected to play in an all-State band concert closing the two-day band festival Saturday.

Three members of the band were unable to make the trip Friday due to illness. They were Joe Sullivan, John Howell and Edred Webb.

F. H. PEIL OF VERNON DIES

RITES TENTATIVELY SET
FRIDAY FOR VETERAN
OIL FIELD DRILLER

Frank H. Peil, 56, of 2628 Bismark Street died late Thursday afternoon in a Vernon hospital after an illness of 10 days. Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Saturday morning in the chapel of the Frost & Landon Mortuary with Rev. W. L. Little, pastor of the First Methodist Church here in charge.

Mr. Peil was born Oct. 9, 1880, in Davenport, Neb. He moved with his family to Kansas while a boy and in 1898 moved to Higgins, Texas. A resident of Texas since that time Mr. Peil had been a drilling contractor and was well known in oil fields of Texas and New Mexico. He had been a resident of Vernon for the past 12 years.

Surviving are the widow and a daughter, Mrs. John W. Riley of Tyler. Mr. Riley was formerly assistant manager of the M. E. Moses Store here. A son, Robert Edwin, died 19 years ago. Other survivors include five sisters, Mrs. W. D. Reber of Kansas City, Mo., Miss Grace Linn Higgins with Rev. F. A. Shaver and Mrs. E. C. Gregg of Enid, Okla., and Mrs. Anton Peterson of McPherson, Kan.; and five brothers, Fred C. Peil of Astoria, Ore., George G. Peil of Wallport, Ore., Harry B. Peil of Higgins, J. B. Linn of Amarillo and Roy Linn of Perryton.

Active pallbearers will be: Crene Dale, J. L. Thomas, Bob Owens, S. O. Adamson, R. B. Adams and C. N. Tillery.

Honorary pallbearers will include: Joe White, Marvin Carleton, Pete Johnson, Ed Chrisney, Miles Reinwater, Roscoe Rainwater, J. H. Smith, Ben Smith, Ben Loutwyler, F. A. Goodman, E. L. Pollard, D. Rogers, W. D. Wood, W. L. Howell, Randolph Owens, Lee Probst, George Gann, C. H. Barry, G. W. McDonald, Dr. J. E. Hoover, C. Fred Russell, R. D. Shive, A. J. Carpenter, Roy Abbott, R. H. Coffey and Bill Clark.

Burial will be in the East View cemetery under the direction of Frost & Landon Mortuary.

Tennessee Editor Honored.

New York, April 23. (AP)—James G. Stahlman, publisher of the Nashville Banner, was named president of the American Newspaper Publishers Association today at the annual election of officers, concluding the golden jubilee convention.

Injury to Heart From Blow Given As One Cause of Sudden Death in Traffic, Ohio Physician Reveals

St. Louis, April 23. (AP)—A cause of sudden death on the Nation's highways that has not been recognized before, Dr. Ray W. Kinsane of Columbus, Ohio, said today, is the effect on the heart caused by a blow on the chest from the steering wheel or other part of an automobile.

Addressing the closing meeting of the American College of Physicians Dr. Kinsane declared that this cause of death was discovered in experiments on dogs in which sharp blows on the chest "produced various types of heart irregularities" which followed almost instantly after the blow was struck.

In most cases the electrical recording of the heart's action, by which the effects of the blows were measured, showed that it returned to normal beating almost immediately, the Columbus physician declared, "but on the other hand we were able to produce serious and fatal irregularities, such as fluttering and heart block or complete stoppage which produced death almost immediately."

In such cases of death examination at autopsy did not reveal any cause of death or abnormal injuries of the heart, he added, just as some persons dying in automobile accidents reveal no actual cause of death when examined. "This would seem to indicate that the force of the blow caused some functional disturbance or swelling of the heart muscle, which produced the fatal fluttering and death," he added.

In some cases the chest blows caused heart changes in the valves which control the flow of the blood in the heart, and tears or rents in the heart itself, these effects being produced without injury to the wall or the chest or fractures of the ribs or breast bone, Dr. Kinsane said.

PLANS READY FOR VISIT TO ROCK CROSSING

Vernon Citizens Urged To Join in Trip Tonight in Aiding Promotion of Good Will—"Sugar Papas" and Host P.-T. A. To Present Program.

Vernon residents were urged today to attend a program at Rock Crossing tonight by C. Fred Russell, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce committee in charge of Vernon's part on the program.

The Rock Crossing Parent-Teachers Association will also have charge of a part of the program and a large number of both Rock Crossing and Vernon residents are expected to attend, Mr. Russell said.

"Sugar Papas of 1937" will be presented as Vernon's share of the entertainment.

Mr. Russell, J. L. Showers and J. R. Wright yesterday visited Rock Crossing to complete arrangements for the program, the first of a series of "Wilbar County communities for the purpose of promoting good will among residents of Vernon and the communities."

The visits to rural communities are sponsored this year in replacing "Acquaintance Week." The importance of community-wide cooperation in creating a spirit of neighborliness throughout the county was emphasized by sponsors of the activity.

M. M. RUDD'S FATHER DIES SUDDENLY IN MISSOURI

Dr. W. E. Rudd, 68, father of M. M. Rudd of Wichita Falls, died suddenly in his home at Salem, Mo., Thursday night following a heart attack. M. M. Rudd formerly resided in Vernon. He is deputy collector for the Internal Revenue Department at Wichita Falls. Mr. Rudd is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Howard of this city.

Dr. Rudd had been in ill health several years and recently returned to his home in Salem from St. Louis hospital. Dr. Rudd was a prominent physician and an active leader in the Baptist church. He had extensive banking and realty interests in his home community. Mr. Rudd left Wichita Falls Thursday night to attend funeral services.

Dr. Rudd is survived by the son and a daughter, Mrs. Camille Ashley of Oskosh, Wis. He visited in the Howard home here several years ago.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL HAS MAY DAY HEALTH PROGRAM

A May Day program will be held by students of the Bokker T. Washington Negro school this afternoon at 5 o'clock on the school grounds. Margarette Gipson will be queen of the festival which is under the direction of G. E. Matthews and V. E. Tomlin.

All of the school's 285 pupils have been immunized to diphtheria and typhoid fever, according to T. W. Cole, the principal, and have also been vaccinated for smallpox.

NORTH ATLANTIC SHIPPING DELAYED BY LONGSHOREMEN

New York, April 23. (AP)—The fight between the American Federation of Labor and the C. I. O. threatened the entire north Atlantic waterfront Thursday.

Activity at eight piers was at a standstill here because of a strike of the International Longshoremen's Association in an effort to force recognition of the organization, which is affiliated with the A. F. of L. in the port of Montreal.

Barely able to get away for Europe yesterday on schedule, under a truce, was the liner Queen Mary, pride of the British merchant marine. The ship carried J. P. Morgan and other notables to the coronation of King George.

Justice of the Peace B. M. Land ruled Sutherland shot his wife with a pistol and then slew himself. He said an exhaustive investigation failed to reveal a motive.

Sutherland, about 50, and his wife, about 35, had been married but a week. He was an employee of a refinery. Justice Land said an earlier theory of foul play had been abandoned when it was found the doors and windows of the place had been locked securely.

SPELLING BEES SCORED BY FEDERAL AUTHORITY

Washington, April 23. (AP)—Dr. John W. Studebaker, United States Commissioner of Education, said today the spelling bee of his generation was all a mistake.

The modern school child, he added, gets along faster even if he isn't taught his ABC's until the third or fourth grade.

"The spelling match didn't teach how to spell," said Dr. Studebaker. "Its very nature of sitting down when you missed a word gave the least practice to those who needed most."

"Nowadays youngsters learn to recognize words as objects, and they start reading. Then learn to spell by reading," he said.

First Tarpon Taken.

Galveston, April 23. (AP)—The first tarpon of the season was landed Friday by H. J. Kirkpatrick, who won $25 in cash for being the first entry in the preliminary tarpon rodeo contest to bag a silver king. The tarpon, measuring 40 inches was caught from the Twenty-fourth Street groin. The rodeo was arranged to stir up interest in tarpon fishing in view of President Roosevelt's approaching fishing trip.

Plane Loss Estimated.

Salamanca, Spain, April 23. (AP)—Generalissimo Francisco Franco's insurgent headquarters estimated today the Madrid-Valencia Government had lost 423 airplanes since the civil war began last July.

SUPPORT CLAIMED FOR MOVE TO CUT APPROPRIATIONS BY 10 PER CENT TO AID BUDGET

Washington, April 23. (A-P)—Senator Byrnes (Democrat, South Carolina) claimed strong support today for his proposal for a flat 10 per cent cut in all 1938 appropriations.

He said he found "lots of sentiment" for it among other members of the Senate appropriations committee.

Byrnes, long an Administration spokesman on fiscal affairs, estimated his suggestion would save another $400,000,000 from the 1938 budget. President Roosevelt's revised budget estimates would leave a $118,000,000 deficit for the year.

Advocates Reduction.

Byrnes earlier had announced a campaign to reduce next year's relief fund from the $1,500,000,000 recommended by the President to an even billion.

He said today the two proposals, lopping $900,000,000 from Government costs, would balance the budget "beyond precedent."

The South Carolina Senator suggested Congress order "a 10 per cent reduction in all appropriations with the exception of fixed charges such as interest, debt retirement, Veterans' Administration charges, and permanent annual appropriations which cannot be reduced."

"Department executives should have discretion to the extent of 10 per cent," he added, "to transfer the cut from one bureau to another inside their department, provided it did not affect the total cut for the department."

President Roosevelt's attitude toward this drastic economy program was not disclosed, but the Chief Executive told reporters recently that Congress might be asked to give him authority to withhold part of the money appropriated to Government units.

Opposition Heard.

The first powerful voice outside Congress raised against the President's economy plan, was that of the American Farm Bureau Federation, often an agricultural ally of the Administration.

"We are for economy," said President Edward A. O'Neal, "but we are not for an economy that will paralyze agriculture."

Economy sentiment was apparent in House discussions today of a $927,000,000 appropriation for running the agriculture department next year. Representative Bierman, Democrat, Iowa, noted that the fund proposed was $200,000,000 more than the cost of the entire Federal Government 25 years ago.

MAN AND WIFE FOUND SLAIN

MURDER AND SUICIDE IS VERDICT IN DEATHS OF
PAIR MARRIED WEEK

Gladesville, April 23. (AP)—A coroner returned a verdict of murder and suicide today in the shootings of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sutherland, found slain in a small one-room house near here yesterday.

Justice of the Peace B. M. Land ruled Sutherland shot his wife with a pistol and then slew himself. He said an exhaustive investigation failed to reveal a motive.

Sutherland, about 50, and his wife, about 35, had been married but a week. He was an employee of a refinery.

Justice Land said an earlier theory of foul play had been abandoned when it was found the doors and windows of the place had been locked securely.

PEASE RIVER BILL VETOED

EXPECTED ACTION TAKEN
AFTER HOUSE VOTE ON SIMILAR MEASURE

Austin, April 23. (AP)—Governor James V. Allred today vetoed a bill remitting taxes to Ford, Wilberger, Cottle and Hardeman counties to aid the Pease River Flood Control District.

The veto had been expected because the Chief Executive said when he disapproved a proposed tax remission to Harris County he would take like action on all similar bills. His veto of the Harris County proposal was upheld by a wide margin.

"Since the House voted yesterday," Allred said, "to sustain my veto to the Harris County bill I take it that the policy of the State, so far as this Legislature is concerned, is determined."

"I regret to veto bills for such apparent worthy projects as the two I have vetoed but in view of the depleted condition of the Treasury and the fact that no revenues have been raised I have no alternative."

SWISHER FARM AGENT IS HEAD OF PLAINS A. M. CLUB

Plainview, April 23. (AP)—P. C. Colgin, Swisher County Agricultural Agent, was elected president of the Central Plains A. & M. Club here last night. C. C. Johnson of Lubbock was named vice president and Ralph Howe, Crosbyton, secretary. H. H. Norton, addressing the club, said the Aggies definitely were "shooting for the southwest Conference football title this Fall, though the competition will be tough, but we are not afraid of D. X. Bible or anyone else."

Soviet Executes Spies.

Moscow, April 23. (AP)—The Communist party newspaper Pravda reported today "destruction" of 30 foreign secret agents by the Soviet Far East, which it said, has been hounded by spies, wreckers and armed bands. Some of the spies, the newspaper charged, even wore red army uniforms.

BASQUE CITY JUBILANT AS FOOD ARRIVES

Convoy Supplied When Shells Menace Small Fleet—City Bombed During Celebration—Insurgent Artillery Toll in Madrid Mounts Higher.

Bilbao, Spain, April 23. (AP)—Three British food ships, running an attempted insurgent blockade under the partial protection of British men-of-war, steamed into besieged Bilbao today to the cheers of famished Basques and the crash of six insurgent air raids.

Government and insurgent pilots engaged in deadly sky fights high over the Basque capital while the cargo boats, loaded with 6,100 tons of provisions, docked in the broad Nervion River.

The food freighters MacGregor, Hamsterley and Stanbrook defied threats from the insurgent cruiser Almirante Cervera and armed trawler Galerna outside the three-mile limit under the protecting guns of H. M. S. Hood, the world's largest battleship, and a flotilla of British destroyers.

Convoy on Hand.

The Basque trawler Biskaya then conveyed the food fleet into Bilbao's port inside the three-mile limit, in which official British protection has been forbidden.

While joyful Basques were applauding the captains and crews of the vessels, insurgent flyers dumped more than 50 bombs on Bilbao but made no attempt to damage the British ships.

Government aviators, rising to battle the air raiders, lost one plane. Captain Felipe Del Rio Cripas was killed. Basque officials said one insurgent ship fell in the sea and two others crashed behind the insurgent siege lines.

The three cargo vessels, bringing relief to Bilbao's starving population swollen from 160,000 to almost 400,000 by refugees, defied the shells of the insurgent fleet during the night and docked soon after dawn.

Just before dawn, the skipper of the Hamster

MRS. NORTON TAKES STAND

WOMAN INSISTS ACTOR IS SAME MAN KNOWN AS "FRANK BILLINGS"

Los Angeles, April 23. (P)—Still firmly convinced, after peering into his face, that Clark Gable is the father of her illegitimate child, Mrs. Violet Wells Norton returned to the stand today for the final phase of her trial for mail fraud and conspiracy.

"He is one and the same man," she testified.

Asked if she could not be mistaken, the hefty Englishwoman replied, "not unless there is a living double for him."

Mrs. Norton is charged with having sought support from the movie actor for her 15-year-old daughter, Gwen-dolene. She said, and still says, she knew Gable as "Frank Billings" in England, and that Gwen-dolene was born of their unacknowledged love.

Her identification was sheer, breathless drama.

Gable was on the stand for the third and last time, called as a defense witness. Mrs. Norton's attorney turned to Federal Judge George C. Connelley.

"Your honor," he said, "I beg leave of the court to permit the defendant to approach this witness so that she may see his face clearly. It is important to her case."

Judge Connelley gave his consent. Mrs. Norton stood directly in front of Gable.

Their eyes, on a dead level, met for the first time in the courtroom. It was a collision of stares.

Her attorney said something to her as she returned to her chair, she whispered a hissing, unmistakable "yes."

A moment later, she herself was on the stand, telling how she met and fell in love with "Billings" while she was the common-law wife of another man, and the mother of his children.

Senate Judiciary Committee Faces Decision on Court Reform Stand As Lengthy Floor Debate Forecast

Washington, April 23. (P)—The Senate Judiciary committee was as closely divided on the Roosevelt court bill at the close of hearings today as it was at the start of testimony seven weeks ago.

Leaders of both sides, while expressing confidence, acknowledged that a group of uncommitted Democrats held a balance of power in the committee.

Indications were that some in this group would seek to force compromise by adding one or two instead of a maximum of six justices to the Supreme Court.

Seven of the 15 on the committee were recorded in opposition and six in favor of the bill. The five yet to commit themselves are Senators McCarran, Democrat, Nevada; McGill, Democrat, Kansas; Hatch, Democrat, New Mexico; O'Mahoney, Democrat, Wyoming; and Hughes, Democrat, Delaware.

Consideration of the bill in a closed session will begin Tuesday.

Speaking of testimony by more than 80 witnesses, Senator Van Nuys, Democrat, Indiana, an opponent, said:

"It has been very educational for the general public but hasn't changed a Senator's vote. I think we have

HOOVER HITS PAROLE PLAN

FREED CONVICTS CLAIM LIVES OF G-MEN IN GUN BATTLES

New York, April 23. (P)—J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the G-Men, nemeses of criminals, paid his respects to the Nation's newspaper publishers.

They are cooperative, helpful, forthright and honest, he said, and nothing would please him more than a front-page column in every newspaper in the United States giving the status of crime and criminals in the community.

He added, however, that "a small minority of the press" had been "unwitting parties" to the obstruction of justice through untimely articles.

Naming misapprehended parole of criminals and deceptive prison sentences which "say one thing and mean another" as two "major menaces of our country," Hoover told the publishers:

"Every special agent of the F. B. I. who has died in gun battle with criminals has been sent to his death by a gun in the hands of a paroled convict."

James G. Stahlman, publisher of the Nashville (Tenn.) Banner, who yesterday told the A. N. P. it was time to bring the newspaper industry to the United States, from Canada, was slated to be named president of the association today as delegates concluded their golden jubilee convention.

Elected a vice president in 1935, Stahlman, if elected, will succeed Jerome D. Barnum, publisher of the Syracuse Post Standard.

COTTON
New York.
New York, April 23. (P)—Cotton futures opened barely steady, 5 to 10 points off, on lower Liverpool cables and under local and foreign liquidation. May 13.15; July 13.20; October 12.94; December 12.90; January 12.92; March 12.92.

May liquidation continued a feature causing that month to sell at a new low for the movement in early trading.

Other liquidation in new crop positions was attributed partly to reports from abroad of fears for a larger Southern cotton acreage, although no new private estimates were available here.

Early net declines of 12 to 16 points uncovered a better demand from the trade and as prices turned steadier a little short covering appeared.

July, which eased from 13.21 to 13.15, rallied to 13.21 with prices late in the first hour close to the highs but still 8 to 11 points net lower.

Liverpool reported selling, influenced by ease of overseas markets, yesterday's Washington indications plans for the farm program might be curtailed by the economy drive, and larger acreage ideas.

GRAIN
Chicago.
Chicago, April 23. (P)—Wheat prices ruled lower in Chicago early today, responsive to Liverpool quotations much lower than due. Traders here, however, were inclined to attribute Liverpool market setbacks to technical conditions rather than to news developments.

Opening 1/4-1/2 cents off. May 1.31 1/4-%, July 1.17 1/4-18, Chicago wheat futures held near then to this range. Corn started 1/4-1/2 down, May 1.20 1/4-%, July 1.15 1/4-16.

ONE KILLED, THREE HURT IN TENNESSEE ACCIDENT
Memphis, Tenn., April 23. (P)—A collision of an automobile and a truck on an open stretch of Highway 70, three miles west of Lehi, Ark., left a woman dead and three other persons injured today.

Miss Bessie Nichols, 23, of Lepanto, Ark., was killed almost instantly in the crash, which occurred at 7 o'clock last night. The injured, Mrs. Pauline Hollinger, 43, San Angelo, Texas, bruised, and one arm broken; Gordon Hollinger, 16, her son, internally hurt and head injuries; Henry Harvey, 25, Helena, Ark., bruised and shaken.

The injured were brought to a hospital here.

LAST DROWNING VICTIM'S BODY TAKEN FROM LAKE
San Antonio, April 23. (P)—Finds was written on the Medina Lake boating tragedy that claimed six lives April 4, when the sixth body, that of Henry L. (Cotton) Lamkin, seen floating on the surface off Mason's Point shortly after daybreak by Walter Connors, of San Antonio, a brother-in-law.

Funeral services for Lamkin will be held this afternoon.

Rumors that Samuel Johnston and Leslie A. Bowers, two of the victims, had large sums of money in their possession when they were drowned, were disproven with the recovery of their bodies yesterday. Bowers had $100 in currency, while Johnston had $50 in cash and some checks.

San Antonio Has Annual Parade In Flower Fiesta

San Antonio, April 23. (P)—San Antonio this afternoon put on parade its beauty, its strength, its devotion to Texas heroes who 101 years ago won liberty from Mexico.

More worthy than ever of its unique spot in the public eye, the Battle of Flowers parade moved on its five-mile march through streets crowded with fiesty throngs and shadowed by modern skyscrapers to the little shrine of Texas freedom on Alamo Plaza.

Led by Governor James V. Allred, civic and military dignitaries and army contingents, the parade featured regular army troops, officials of the Battle of Flowers Association and patriotic groups whose members either served in one of America's great conflicts, or gave loved ones to the ranks.

Rural and public schools will follow, then the Cavaliers composed of representatives of the Texas Rangers, and the Trail Drivers.

King Antonio came to receive the plaudits of his merry-making subjects. Cavaliers in their blue and red uniforms, sabers flashing, served as a mounted escort to his majesty.

Peak of the pageant on parade was arrival of the debaucherous Imperial Russian court and her majesty, Josephine Vance of the house of Spencer, empress of all the Russias.

Awarded Scholarship at Duke.
Seaborn Kiker, a nephew of Mrs. Herbert Masx of Vernon, has been awarded a scholarship in the School of Religion at Duke University, Durham, N. C. The scholarship will entitle him to tuition and $400 per year for expenses. In return, he is to give ministerial service in nearby churches. Kiker will graduate from Southern Methodist University, Dallas, in June. He is a son of Rev. and Mrs. Ira C. Kiker of Greenville and has visited in Vernon a number of times. His father is presiding elder for Methodist churches in the Greenville district.

Pioneer Uncovers.
J. D. Jobe of Vernon, a pioneer resident of this section, is convinced that cold weather will not strike here again until next Fall and has had his Winter growth of whiskers removed. "I'll let them start growing again as soon as the first cold weather hits in the Fall," he remarked. Mr. Jobe said he had "guessed right" on his annual Spring shaves for many years, as late Spring cold spells had never occurred after his shaves. Mr. Jobe came to the Thalia community in 1888, three years before Ford County was organized.

Coyote Fann Happy.
Leo P. Gordon, salesman for the Empire Paper Company of Wichita Falls, said here today that Wichita Falls fans were happy over the promotion of W. C. Weir from the Vernon High School coaching position to a similar post at Schreiner Institute, Kerrville. He failed to mention whether it was friendship for Weir or the Coyote's six losses in nine games with Weir-coached Lions that caused the happiness among Wichita Falls fans.

COUNTERFEIT SECURITIES BRING ARREST OF MAN
Washington, April 23. (P)—Acting Director T. D. Quinn of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, said Thursday Federal agents had arrested Carl Silvers in Chicago on charges of sending $80,000 in counterfeit securities across state lines.

Two other men, Thomas J. Dix and W. B. Dix, of Laredo, Texas, already are under $10,000 and $5,000 bond, respectively, in connection with circulation of the securities, Quinn said.

Quinn said Silvers was arrested in Chicago Wednesday on the basis of information obtained from the Dixes. Thomas J. Dix told the agents, Quinn said, he had received the bonds from Silvers as a loan in return for which he was to pay Silvers $20,000.

RICHBERG CHARGES RAILWAY IN LABOR ACT VIOLATION
San Francisco, April 23. (P)—Donald Richberg, former NRA counsel, charged the Southern Pacific Railroad Thursday with violating the National Railway Labor Act by fostering "a type of company unionism."

Richberg's statement was made to President Roosevelt's emergency mediation board inviting into charges brought against the company by two railroad brotherhoods.

GREEN ESTATE PLEAS HEARD

MRS. WILKS GIVES COURT
SHARP ANSWERS DURING
NEW YORK SESSION

New York, April 23. (P)—Enmeshing difficulties attending efforts to settle an estate roughly valued at $700,000 were entered in court records today as one woman sought to keep the fortune, another tried to share in it and five states fought to levy on it.

Resuming work on the will of Colonel Edward H. R. Green, son of the shrewd Hetty Green, Surrogate's Court faced the problem of determining not only the validity of a 1908 will under which Mrs. Matthew Astor Wilks of Chicago received the entire fortune but also his legal residence.

"What was your brother's legal residence?" counsel for the New York State tax commission asked Mrs. Wilks late yesterday in a court session in which the witness spoke her mind freely.

"I know he avoided Florida and Texas and Massachusetts," she replied.

Harry R. Bennett, one-time steward of Colonel Green's yacht "United States" testified a little later, however, that the Colonel whose will was filed for probate last year, maintained a residence at Round Hills, Mass.

The states attempting to tax the huge estate are the three named by Mrs. Wilks and New York and Vermont.

Mrs. Wilks, a tart-tongued witness, at one point was asked whether she had a safety deposit box in which she said she found the 1908 will contained any letters addressed to Mrs. Green.

"Which Mrs. Green?" she shot back.

"There is only one Mrs. Green now," explained Isaac A. Pennypacker, counsel for Mrs. Wilks' sister-in-law, Mrs. Mabel Green.

"My mother," responded the witness, bridling, "was Mrs. Green and she is scored to me."

BROWNSVILLE BOOSTS BID FOR PRESIDENT'S VISIT

Brownsville, April 23.—Five more fighting tarpon were piled up today in this city's argument that the President should come to the Rio Grande if he wants to catch the silver king, while anglers lost dozens of the big fish that were too frisky to hold. One fisherman even caught a tarpon in the surf near the Rio Grande while fishing with cut bait.

"There is no question about it," said J. H. Batsell, Chamber of Commerce sports committee chairman who put two big fellows on the bank late yesterday, "we've got the fishing at this time of the year. If the President wants to catch fish he should come to the Rio Grande."

15 HURT IN STRIKE RIOT

Stockton, Calif., April 23. (P)—Fifteen persons, including one woman, were injured in violent outbreaks as a strike-bound cannery was opened here today.

Shots were fired, tear gas shells burst in the shouting crowd and rocks were hurled after pickets attempted to overturn a truck of spinach being taken into the plant.

One man was shot in the face and he and 4 other persons were taken to an emergency hospital. Three other men fell during the fighting but companions removed them in automobiles.

Waterloo Road, in front of the Stockton Food Products Company plant, was the scene of violent clashes between the pickets, special deputy sheriffs and State Highway Patrolmen.

Deputies wearing green arm bands fired into the surging crowd after attempts were made to overturn the spinach truck.

State Highway Patrolmen, conveying the truck, opened fire with long range gas shells from the machine and other missiles were shot from the roof of an adjoining warehouse.

B. J. WOODINGTON WARNS
THIEVES TO AVOID CAR

An automobile belonging to B. J. Woodington of 1502 Deaf Smith Street was robbed Thursday night "for the third and last time," the owner said today.

Mr. Woodington, who parks his car in a driveway at his residence, said, "First the tools and spare tire were taken by thieves. Then the meters were taken from the dashboard. Thursday night the hub caps were taken. Not satisfied with stripping my car the thieves also took a garden hose from the yard."

"In the future the car and yard will be watched and prowlers will be shot without warning."

A city ordinance requiring junk and second hand goods dealers to fill out an identification blank for the seller of each item purchased by them is advocated by Mr. Woodington who said he planned to place the matter before the City Commission.

FIVE-IN-ONE BAND TO PLAY AT JAYCEE MEETING

Music by the Five-in-One "Musical Maidens" will feature the program at the Junior Chamber of Commerce's regular monthly luncheon at the Faith Cafe next Wednesday, according to D. D. Moore, chairman of the program committee.

Also on the program Wednesday will be talks by Coaches W. C. Weir and Burnett Cox on prospects for the Vernon Lions football team next Fall, Mr. Moore said.

Mrs. Holladay Is
New President of
Fannin P.-T. Unit

Mrs. James Holladay was installed as president of the Fannin School Parent-Teacher Association at a meeting Thursday afternoon at the school. The installation service was conducted by Mrs. B. M. Hampton, president of the City Council of Parent-Teacher Associations.

Other officers installed included Mrs. J. K. Reese, first vice president and program chairman; Mrs. O. T. Youngblood, second vice president and publications chairman; Mrs. E. B. Rowland, third vice president and membership chairman; Mrs. W. Garrett, fourth vice president and publicity chairman; Frank C. Coulter, secretary; and Mrs. J. D. Wright, treasurer. Chairmen of the finance and budget, parent education, and health committees have not yet been selected.

Mrs. Babasin Speaks.
The program was opened with a piano solo, "Caprice Viennois," (Kreiser), by Miss Lillian Bacon. Mrs. Y. H. Babasin then spoke to the group on "Development of Appreciation and Good Taste in Children." A paper prepared by Mrs. M. N. Stokes on "Our Movie-Made Children," was then read by Mrs. J. K. Reese. The program was concluded with prayer by Mrs. R. M. Hampton.

During the business session Mrs. Fred Holley, the unit's delegate to the district Parent-Teacher Conference held last week in Wichita Falls, submitted her report. A pamphlet on sanitation as related to commercial dispensing of food was read by Mrs. J. D. Bell, and Mrs. John Naylor and Olin Barrett were named members of a committee to cooperate in Vernon's Clean-up and Safety Week campaign.

President Given Pin.
Mrs. Everett Westbrook presided at the meeting and appointed Mesdames R. C. Messick and Tom Bell and Principal Ben H. Roberts a committee to audit the treasurer's books. In appreciation of Mrs. Westbrook's services, she was presented with a past president's pin by the unit. The program was concluded with the installation under Mrs. Hampton's direction.

Vases of Spring cut flowers were used as decorations for the assembly room.

Those present included Ben H. Roberts, and Mesdames J. D. Bell, James Holladay, Jerry K. Reese, R. B. Adams, Claude Ferchee, W. O. Shine, Dick Witt, L. D. Thornton, Y. H. Babasin, J. C. Blanchett, J. D. McStay, E. B. Rowland, Fred Holley, Everett Westbrook, W. P. Layne, J. G. Golden, O. M. Barrett, and R. M. Hampton.

VERNON BEAUTY
OPERATORS MAY ATTEND MEETING

Several Vernon beauty parlor operators will have opportunity to hear many of the world's foremost authorities on coiffure styles when they attend the Texas-National Convention in Fort Worth, April 26-28. Operators will gather to sit in judgment on the question of how milady shall wear her hair to conform with the rapidly changing trend of styles in millinery and costumes, as decreed by the leading Parisian and American designers.

P. Richard, of New York, recognized as one of the world's foremost authorities on the styling of the hair, will be master of ceremonies and will preside over the deliberations of the master coiffeurs assembled from all parts of the United States. Richard is president of the American Section, International Master Ladies Hairdressers' Association, the organization which represents the hair-style authorities of Europe and North and South America. A conference of American members of this body will be held during the convention.

The influence of the British Coronation on feminine styles for the coming Summer and Fall will be reviewed, along with other fashion trends and the outcome will determine the winners of a hair styling contest in which hairdressers from all parts of Texas and adjoining states will be participants. New methods in permanent waving and the latest developments in hair tinting will come in for a share of the experts' attention during the three days of their deliberations.

Mrs. Henry Moore of the Cinderella Beauty Shop is one of the Vernon operators planning to attend. She will leave Sunday for Fort Worth.

CONCESSIONS AT BASEBALL
MEET ARE GRANTED TO CLUB

Members of the East Vernon Home Demonstration Club will sell hamburgers, iced drinks and candy at the county baseball meet at the East Vernon School Saturday, according to an announcement made Friday. All members of the club were asked to report to the school by 10 o'clock.

Summer Salad Described.
A simple salad recipe, which comes from Miami, combines the exotic avocado and papaya fruits on a lettuce leaf. Simply slice or dice the two, season with a dressing made of lime juice, a little sugar, pepper, salt and paprika, and serve thoughtfully chilled. Both fruits are highly nutritious, making this an ideal main dish for a warm weather luncheon.

Biltmore Is New Shade.
Biltmore is the name of a select new color for Spring and Summer hosiery. This warm, tan color was worn with success in Miami the past Winter with sheer stockings. The color blends well with the new shades of blue and is particularly well adapted to white.

Everett Keenon of Mine Run, Va., has been in 19 automobile accidents without suffering serious injury.

COLLEGE COMEDY TO BE PRESENTED
BY 1937 SENIORS

A college comedy, "Girls Will Be Boys," has been selected for presentation by the senior class of Vernon Junior High School on May 7 at 8:15 o'clock in the auditorium of the Vernon Junior High School, according to an announcement by Miss Johnnie Shirley, class sponsor, who is directing the production.

Each year in accordance with a school tradition the senior class presents a play, and practices now being held indicate that the 1937 comedy will be equally as good as those of past years.

Included in the cast of characters are "Peewee" Tarr, pride of the team; Arch Collins; Gubby Carter, studious biology major; DeWayne Davis; "Bunny Chase," a Gamma Beta; Warner Brock; "Rip Daggett," another Gamma Beta; Worth O'Neal; "Babe Orrie," a freshman; Steve Castlebury; "Rowen Phillips," a Sigma Chi; "Aljo Mur-chison," "Faylene Blair," another Sigma Chi; Margaret Webb; "Profess-ior Potter," dean of men; Edwin Youngblood; "Miss Tolbert," dean of women; Maurine Igou; "Avis Mahew," also a Sigma Chi; "Annie Mae Hawkins;" "Mrs. Thompson," president of Colfax Historical Society; Frances Bates; "Martha Briggs," custodian of Colfax Historical Society; Jane McClelland.

Other seniors who are assisting with the production include Sophie Mae Gross, prompter; Roy Bacon, make-up man; A. J. Pearce, property manager; and Robert Cocanower, advertising manager.

Well-Arranged Kitchen Is Said To Be Economy

Kitchens should be equipped and arranged to be time-saving, energy-saving, and step-saving, according to a demonstration given by Miss Doris Leggett at a meeting of the East Vernon Home Demonstration Club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. C. Thompson.

Six goals for kitchen improvement were listed, and if each of these is accomplished, Mrs. Leggett said, household drudgery will be greatly lessened. Among the goals she listed were the proper disposal of waste, a sink with running water, proper storage space for all equipment, good floor and wall finishes, table and cabinets of the proper height, and a proper grouping of work units.

In a business meeting plans were discussed for a "good neighbor" program in the near future and Miss Leggett reported several announcements made at the last Council meeting. Refreshments were then served to Miss Leggett and Mesdames J. B. McDaniel, C. Judd, C. E. Koontz, J. A. Daffie, Z. H. Childress, O. E. Carpenter, R. E. Carpenter, Clyde Fox, and the hostess, Mrs. H. C. Thomason.

Eurice Lee Hollars Is Given Birthday Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar White honored Miss Eurice Lee Hollars with a dinner on her seventeenth birthday Thursday evening at their home here. Miss Hollars received many nice gifts.

A pink and white color scheme was carried out in all decorations. Following the serving of a two-course dinner, little Eurice sang "Happy Birthday" while the honoree cut the birthday cake. Games were then enjoyed throughout the remainder of the evening.

Those present were Billie Marie Meyer, Marzee Lee, Nonness Mote, Mellis Childress, W. T. Smith, Aubrey Thompson, Jack White, Wanda Lou and Sonny White, and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar White.

Pupils of Miss Smith
To Give Recital Here

Pupils of Miss Edna Smith will be presented in a recital tonight at the Federated Presbyterian Church at 8 o'clock, according to an announcement made today. Approximately 15 students will appear on the program in vocal and piano numbers, both solos and ensembles.

A number of Miss Smith's South Lockett pupils were recently presented in a recital at the First Baptist Church of Lockett, and the majority of those on tonight's program will be Vernon pupils, she said.

4-H Club Girls Will Honor Mothers at Tea

Members of the Five-in-One Girls' 4-H Club made plans Wednesday for a tea which they will give in honor of their mothers in the near future. The meeting was held at the school with the president, Thelma Roman in charge.

Earline Capps was elected as new club reporter at the meeting.

Following the business session games were enjoyed by Maurine and Louise Abston, Earline and Pauline Capps, Ruth Gunter, Martha Jo Caldwell, Annah Jo Beazley, Thelma Roman, Thelma Crank, Thelma Tole, Thelma Rains, and Marjorie Price.

Peasant Prints Popular.
Peasant prints from Russia and Czechoslovakia fashion some of the smartest Spring frocks for the very young tots. Many of the little dresses being shown now are veritable flower gardens abounding with color. Tiny box plants hung from little yokes are well suited to the young miss of five or six years of age. Even little brother steps out in a gay peasant print shirt worn with short black peasant pants. The latter, introduced at a juvenile show in the gardens of the Roney Plaza Cabana Sun Club, Miami, are among the smartest outfits one can find for the smaller boy.

Farmers Valley
Unit Told About
Health Program

Reports of health work and standardization were heard Wednesday evening by members of the Farmers Valley Parent-Teacher Association in session at the school. Mrs. R. A. Randel, retiring president, told the Association of the requirements which had been met for standardization of the unit.

Ribbons were presented during the year to 27 students in the school for having teeth without imperfections. Mrs. M. L. Bell, chairman of the health committee, reported. Two students, Jean Brock, and Tommie Lee Randel, received five-point health certificates, she said.

Resignation of Mrs. Orion Canafax as secretary-treasurer for the coming year was accepted, and Mrs. M. L. Bell was elected to succeed her. A committee was then appointed to assist in preparing for the May-pole drill to be given at the county health festival on April 30.

A report of the recent Parent-Teacher conference held in Wichita Falls was given to the unit by Mrs. E. H. Rich, president-elect and delegate to the convention. Her report was given following the devotional conducted by E. H. Rich. J. C. Smith of Vernon then led in prayer.

Mrs. N. D. Brock introduced persons appearing on the program. Tommie Lee Randel sang "Silver Haired Daddy" and "Good Old Mountain Music" and J. C. Smith of Vernon was the principal speaker. The subject of his talk was "The Father as a Parent." The program was dedicated to fathers who are members of the P.-T. A.

Convention Hears
Prominent Texas
Women Thursday

Mrs. R. E. Buchanan of Fort Worth, pioneer Texas club woman, was one of the speakers at Thursday's session of the first district Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, convention Thursday. Reviewing the progress of motion pictures in the past 40 years, Mrs. Buchanan emphasized the demand for women to be critical in needing worthwhile movies. Her talk was entitled "What's New in the Motion Pictures."

Friendly relations among American republics was discussed by Senator Adolfo G. Dominguez, Mexican consul, Thursday evening at the Pan-American dinner. The address was given prior to a fine arts program in the Woman's Forum. Mrs. Joe Farabee of Wichita Falls was principal speaker for the night meeting, choosing as her subject, "Literature as a Fine Art."

Friday's Program.
A message from the new State Federation president, Mrs. R. J. Turrentine of Denton, and an address on "Woman's Part in the Promotion of World Peace" by Mrs. W. R. Potter or Bowie were scheduled for Friday. Selection of the convention city for 1938 and announcement of cash awards were of chief interest as the convention drew toward its close.

Mrs. Lee Morris of Chico, State first vice president, and Mrs. W. P. Averitt of Lamesa, second vice president, are present for the convention and will likely be heard Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Beavers Speaks.
Mrs. George H. Beavers of Vernon, chairman of the home department, reported Thursday on extension work being done with the aid of county home demonstration agents, and Mrs. Clarence Kaker of Bridgeport reported on mothercraft.

Junior clubs were entertained by the Wichita Falls Junior Forum Thursday with a luncheon in the Sky Room of the Kemp Hotel. The Pan-American decoration scheme was evident, and a peace program was presented by the Junior Woman's Club of Fort Worth.

SENATE VOTES HOSPITAL BILL

INSTITUTIONS AT EAST AND WEST TEXAS POINTS PROPOSED

Austin, April 22. (P)—The Senate passed a bill Thursday calling for establishment of two new hospitals for the insane, one in West and the other in East Texas.

As passed by the House, the proposal provided only for the West Texas institution. The Senate's addition of the East Texas hospital made it necessary for the bill to return to the lower chamber for action on the amendment.

The appropriation for each hospital would be $817,000. Locations would be left to the board of control. Some point in southeast Texas had been mentioned as the likely site for one of the institutions.

MOTHERS ARE RESPONSIBLE

The family looks to you to aid your doctor in keeping them well. You can help prevent much illness and poor health by guarding them from common constipation.

Most constipation comes from faulty diet—meals low in "bulk." This condition can be corrected so easily and pleasantly.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides the safe way to prevent constipation by putting "bulk" back in the diet. Within the body, ALL-BRAN absorbs twice its weight in water, forming a soft mass which gently sponges out the system.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN also furnishes vitamin B and iron. It is so much better for your family than constant dosing with artificial pills and drugs.

Two tablespoonfuls daily as a cereal with milk or cream, or in recipes, are enough for the average person. Three times daily in severe cases.

Sold at all grocers—and guaranteed by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

HIRAM KNOX IS INDICTED

SHORTAGE IN ACCOUNTS RESULTS IN CHARGES OF FORGERY

Big Spring, April 22. (P)—Eleven indictments were returned by the Seventeenth District Court grand jury here Thursday against Hiram A. Knox. Ten of the counts charged forgery and the eleventh alleged the passing of a forged instrument.

Knox was charged in connection with alleged shortages in the funds of Templeton and Cannon, post-office building contractors, by whom he was formerly employed. His cases have been set for trial May 10.

Knox was one of the contestants of the will of his grandmother, the late Mrs. Mary A. Knox, aged Dallas woman who was slain.

MECHANIC HELD IN TORCH DEATH OF MULA DANCER

Los Angeles, April 22. (P)—Matthew Donahue, 57-year-old mechanic, was held in jail Thursday on suspicion of murder as police continued their investigation of the fatal burning of Miss Mary Perdue, 22-year-old hula dancer.

Detective Lieutenant Edward Evans said witnesses in a waterfront cafe in San Pedro told him Donahue applied a lighted match to the hula dancer's dress, which she was wearing when she danced. Donahue denied this, saying he was standing at the bar when he turned to see her costume in flames.

Eight Teams Open Baseball Play in New League May 2

OPENING DAY GAMES CALLED

CLUBS IN WICHITA AND FOARD COUNTIES JOIN H. W. F. LOOP

Eight teams of the H-W-F League will open the baseball season in this section May 2 at 3 o'clock. It was announced following a meeting of managers last night in Vernon.

Opening games will be Harrold at the King Oil Company field, Medicine Mound at Crowell, Goodlett at Quannah and Rock Crossing at Vernon. The schedule calls for a split season with each team playing eight games each half and a three game playoff for the title between winners of first and second halves. W. H. Holt, secretary-treasurer of the loop, will complete drawing up the schedules as soon as possible.

Managers voted last night to change the name of the circuit, formerly the Harrold-Wilberger League, to the H-W-F League after teams from Wichita and Foard counties became members.

Managers present at last night's meeting were: O. O. Hollingsworth, Brownwood; C. Smith and Damon Simmons, Vernon; L. L. McHugh, Rock Crossing; Scotty Sutton, King Oil Company; Sam Vaughn, Harrold; W. A. Holt, secretary-treasurer of the league, was also present.

Managers of other teams in the loop are J. Z. Brooks, Medicine Mound; John Pelley, Goodlett and Hickory Bates at Quannah.

TEN CITIES ENTERED IN WTCC ACTIVITY CONTEST

Brownwood, April 23.—Ten cities already have entered the Chamber of Commerce Activities Contest to be held at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention in Brownwood May 10, 11 and 12. This is a new contest and a number of other entries are expected before the convention, according to Jed Rix, convention manager.

The contest is divided into two sections, one for the best report of the past year's activities and the other for the best work program for the coming year.

Towns that have entered and names of C. of C. secretaries who filed the entries are: Sweetwater, George D. Barber; Shamrock, Bedford Harrison; Kerrville, Wm. O. Harwell; Floydada, R. W. Cothern; Haskell, Ralph Dunson; Roswell, N. M., Claude Simpson; Vernon, W. H. Wright; Slaton, A. J. Turner; Midland, Bill Collins; and Coleman, S. W. Cooper.

PLOT TO "STEAL" TEMPLE OF AIMEE McPHERSON BARED

Los Angeles, April 23. (AP)—Strangest of all the strange testimony in the Aimee Semple McPherson slander suit against Willard Andrews, Angelus Temple attorney, was written in the court record Thursday.

Roberts, comely 27-year-old daughter of Aimee Semple McPherson, testified that her mother told her last year Andrews had discovered a "plot" to take the Temple away from her.

"Mother said that Andrews told her every time Miss Frick, the organizer, played a certain tune, it was a signal for a secret meeting at the home of Dean Harriet Jordan to lay plans for stealing the Temple," Roberts told Judge Clarence Kincaid.

FATHER DIVINE FOLLOWER FREED ON $25,000 BOND

Los Angeles, April 23. (AP)—At liberty on $25,000 bond, John W. Hunt, wealthy white follower of Father Divine, Negro cultist, will be arraigned Monday on a charge of violating the Mann act.

The federal grand jury indicted Hunt and three other persons, unnamed, on charges of bringing pretty 17-year-old Delight Jewett here from her Denver, Colo., home. Government prosecutors allege Hunt and the girl registered at certain hostess as "Jesus the Christ," and "Virgin Mary."

Baseball League MORE COACHES VISIT

Boasts Amateurs

Managers of the newly organized H-W-F League plan a strong bid for public interest when the season opens May 2. Baseball, formerly extremely popular among fans and players alike in this vicinity, has been played before dwindling crowds in the past few years and interest among players has also slackened. To combat this tendency, according to W. H. Holt of Harrold, secretary-treasurer of the league, a new policy will be followed this year.

Open To Amateurs.

Players who compete in the H-W-F circuit will be ranked amateurs, Holt said. No importations are planned. Instead, baseball minded youths from the communities represented in the league will be given a chance to display their prowess. Some of them are already known as excellent players. Others are untied but eager for an opportunity. Far more interest has already been aroused among Vernon youths than at any time in several seasons and, according to Holt, the same holds true in Harrold, Rock Crossing, Goodlett, Quannah, Crowell, Medicine Mound and among King Oil players.

"We are going to give youngsters who really want to play a chance," Holt said. "We have enough in this category with previous experience to know that a pretty good brand of ball will be played and we are sure that every team in the league will improve throughout the summer."

Coaches Visit Vernon.

Baseball and softball, however, continue to share the spotlight with football although the Spring training season has ended and uniforms will not be brought out until Fall. Interest in Vernon High School's search for a successor to Coach Heinle Veir accounts for most of the talk about football. And to date no selection has been made although applications are understood to be numerous. Among visitors in Vernon Thursday were J. T. Muse, Chillicothe mentor, and Dan Stallworth, Quannah Indian coach. It is believed no selection will be made immediately, at least for several days.

Player and Family Move.

H. P. Chenaunt and family left yesterday for Hobart, Okla. With them was Marvin Chenaunt, end on the 1936 Vernon Lion squad, whose name will probably appear next Fall on the lineup of the Hobart eleven. Although his eligibility under Texas rules has been completed Marvin has another year under the Oklahoma eligibility standards.

Childless Loses Bacus.

Vernon won't be the only District 2-A school to lose a coach this Spring according to rumors reaching here from Childless, although to date there has been no talk of change among other head coaches. Childless, however, according to Doyle Vinson of the Index, will have to forego the services of the popular Whitey Bacus as backfield mentor. The report is that Bacus is negotiating with officials of his alma mater, S. M. U., for a coaching position on Matty Bell's staff and announcement of the change will be made next week. Bacus was also basketball coach for the Bobcats during the past season, his first at Childless. An Estelme product, he started in football at S. M. U. and was an All-American eager. He was graduated from college in 1935.

Kirkland Gets McMin.

Another coaching change has been announced in Childless County where Kirkland school officials announced Ed McMin, head coach in 1935-36 would return next Fall. McMin went to Perico last Fall but resigned at miles from term to complete work at Texas Tech. He succeeds Grady Halbert as coach.

PARKER BOYS TEAM IN LEAD

PLAYGROUND TOURNEY FOR VERNON WARD SCHOOLS GETS UNDER WAY

The Parker school playground ball team took the lead yesterday in a round robin to determine the boys' championship of Vernon Ward schools with victories over both Shive and Central schools in games played at the City Park diamond. In the girls' division the Shive club downed Parker by a score of 24 to 11.

He has as much stuff as any pitcher who ever threw the horsehide.

Walsh, who as a Chicago White Sox star qualified as an "iron man" by twice winning two games on one afternoon, said Feller has a chance to become one of the greatest pitchers "of all time—past or present."

"He has as much stuff as any pitcher who ever threw the horsehide," Walsh said, "and in addition he has the physique necessary to keep pouring the ball in with his tremendous speed."

RECORDS IN DANGER AS RELAYS OPEN AT DRAKE

Des Moines, Iowa, April 23. (AP)—Several records were in imminent danger today as a fast field sprinted into action to open the twenty-eighth annual Drake relays.

More than 2,500 university, college and high school athletes, representing 154 institutions from coast to coast, composed one of the most attractive entry lists in the carnival's history.

Seventeen championship events were up for decisions today along with preliminaries in eleven other events.

The sprint medley, an addition to the regular Drake program, and the distance medley were killed as the outstanding features of today's program.

The sun-browned Rice team was a stand-out.

SOCIAL WELFARE PROBLEMS ARE DISCUSSED AT ABILENE

Abilene, April 23. (AP)—The twenty-seventh annual Texas Conference of Social Welfare opened here Thursday with 600 persons registered.

Seven group sessions preceded a luncheon, at which Mrs. Violet Greenhill of Austin, head of the Child Welfare Division, presided.

W. A. Little, acting chief of the Texas Old Age Assistance Commission, was the chief speaker for the section on old age assistance, by far the largest of the seven sections.

OKLAHOMA PARK SELECTED FOR NATURE-STUDY TRIP

The biggest link in Oklahoma's chain of State Parks—the 19,000-acre Lake Murray State Park, near Ardmore—will be the scene of Sunday's Nature-study hikes under auspices of the National Park Service and the State Park Commission.

Because there is so much to be seen in this second largest recreational area in the Southwest, and because there are indications that many visitors will be on hand from points in Texas as well as Oklahoma, they will be three separately conducted tours.

Feller Is Hailed As "Greatest" By Walsh

Chicago, April 23. (AP)—Big Ed Walsh, whose pitching feats are sprinkled liberally through baseball's record book, said today he believes young Bob Feller of Cleveland "the greatest prospect ever to come into the game."

Walsh, who as a Chicago White Sox star qualified as an "iron man" by twice winning two games on one afternoon, said Feller has a chance to become one of the greatest pitchers "of all time—past or present."

"He has as much stuff as any pitcher who ever threw the horsehide," Walsh said, "and in addition he has the physique necessary to keep pouring the ball in with his tremendous speed."

Scholarship Offered.

Waco, April 23.—Baylor University has offered a scholarship to the winner of the My Home Town speaking contest at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention in Brownwood May 10, 11, and 12. President Pat M. Neff announced the offer today and notified convention headquarters in Brownwood.

Phillips 66 Presents Softball Club With Ample Players To Give Jaycee Teams Trouble in 1937 Title Chase

"Just a breeze" is E. D. Leggett's description of the 1937 Jaycee softball league race which will open here May 3.

"We have men two or three deep for every position," Leggett, manager of the defending champion Phillips 66 team, said today, "and right now it looks like we are sure to repeat."

Managers of the other seven member teams of the Jaycee loop are skeptical concerning the ability of the Oilers to take the crown again but admit the Phillips club will be hard to beat.

A surprise to many of the managers will be the news that R. D. Smith, husky fireball specialist who is almost equally good with the bat, will be on the mound again for Phillips. Smith returned last week from another season of the State where he had accepted a position to resume his job and pitcher's role with the Phillips company.

Smith, however, may not be called on in every game. Manager Leggett having announced the acquisition of a "dark horse from Olney" who went to work for the Phillips company last winter. L. E. Spruiell is Leggett's "dark horse" and if he lives up to expectations the Oilers will have one of the strongest pitching staffs in this section of the State.

The infield has also been strengthened, according to Leggett, who says John Homer, Gibson will appear at shortstop. Clifton Compton at third base, Delbert Simmons behind the bat, Buford Combs and Gordon Taylor will divide first base duties, and Earl Sturm and Ernest Green will alternate on the keystone sack. Gibson, Compton, Simmons and Taylor are new members of the Phillips organization.

New outfielders with the Phillips club are Banks Campsey and Leonard Hutchins. Holdovers from last year's team are Roy Roeder, Sonny Ferrell, Tully Mitchell, E. L. Bailey, Marshall Spencer and Coyt Briscoe.

The Oilers, who last Summer took first place in each half of the split season, will open their Jaycee season this year with Oklahoma May 4 on the Rock Crossing diamond.

CARDS DEFEAT REDS, 14 TO 11

The Gashouse Gang got the best of a free scoring spree Thursday as the St. Louis Cardinals defeated Cincinnati, 14 to 11. The Reds had a nine-run spurge in the fourth inning at their home field. Mize of the Cards hit a home run.

At Chicago, Dutch Brandt made his debut for the Pirates in defeating the Cubs, 4 to 2. In the lone American League contest Monte Stratton gave up five hits as the Chicago White Sox defeated the Browns, 6 to 1, with Zeke Bonura getting a home run.

Other games in the major leagues were postponed by rain.

BEAUMONT WINS AGAIN IN TEXAS LEAGUE CONTEST

The Beaumont Exporters continued their victory march Thursday night in defeating the Houston Buffaloes, 9 to 8, in a Texas League baseball game at Houston.

Other winners were the Fort Worth Cats, victors over Tulsa, 13 to 10; Dallas, winners over Oklahoma City, 6 to 2; and Galveston, defeating the San Antonio Missions, 5 to 2.

The Cats got 18 hits off four Tulsa pitchers while the Indians left 14 men on base when they failed to develop the punch to win over the Steers. Eddie Cole of the Pirates fanned 12 San Antonio Padres.

Amazing New BREAD Diet Helps to Burn Up Fat

—keeps up energy while you REDUCE

THIS new Bread Diet takes off pounds. Everyone should know that Bread itself is not fattening. It is an almost ideal combination of energy-giving carbohydrate and a special form of protein that helps burn up fat while you are reducing.

Unlike extreme diets, the Bread Diet reduces your weight without making you weak and irritable. Extreme diets may result in nervous breakdown, and should be undertaken only under a physician's supervision.

The Bread Diet is absolutely safe for the average overweight person. If you want to reduce safely, go on the Bread Diet. It gives you Bread as the main part of your energy food.

FOLLOW THIS BREAD DIET PLAN

- BREAKFAST
This Diet Plan gives about 1500 Calories a day—the reducing allowance of the average person.

ADVICE GIVEN BY "IRON MAN"

CONSECUTIVE GAME RECORD IS HARMFUL, SAYS "DEACON" SCOTT

New York, April 23. (AP)—Everett (Deacon) Scott, the "iron man" of another big league era, is back in the big town after 12 years with a bit of advice for Lou Gehrig, his successor as baseball's most indestructible player.

The advice: "Gehrig should quiet. Keeping that consecutive game record doesn't do him any good, it'll slow him up in the end."

The Deacon knows whereof he speaks. Back in 1925, the same year Gehrig started his record breaking consecutive game streak, which has now reached 1,509, Miller Huggins sent Peevew Wanniger in at shortstop for the Yanks to replace Scott. That ended the Deacon's string of 1,207 successive games. Shortly afterwards Scott was traded to Washington. Until he returned to howl in the A. B. C. Scott had not been back in New York.

He's happy and prosperous. "I own a big place in Fort Wayne, Ind., 18 bowling alleys and 10 billiard tables," added Scott. "Haven't had much of a chance to see any big league games since I left. Reading my last professional stand as a ball player. I wanted to go out and see the Yanks, but it rained."

"I don't know about Gehrig, but that streak of mine slowed me down," he went on. "I started one season with a sprained ankle, played lots of games when I should have been resting. In the end it hurts you more than it helps."

PENN RELAYS ATTRACT 3,000 COLLEGE ATHLETES

Philadelphia, April 23. (AP)—Nearly 3,000 trained-to-the-minute athletes, representing colleges and universities of the United States and Canada, started their onslaught today on track records in the forty-third annual University of Pennsylvania Relay Carnival.

Cool weather, following two days of rain, made the track fast for the two-day competition.

Luigi Bealli, Italy's former Olympic champion, will match strides in a mile run tomorrow with Don Lash, fleet-footed Indiana runner. Gene Venke, former Penn star now representing the New York Athletic Club, and Ernie Federoff.

The greatest competition for the Hoosiers is expected to be furnished by teams from North Texas Teachers College, Georgia, Manhattan, Columbia, Temple and Pittsburgh.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

(By The Associated Press)
Monte Stratton, White Sox—Limited Browns to five hits in 6-1 win over Browns.
Al Todd and Dutch Brandt, Pirates—Former drove in two runs with triple; latter fanned eight batters in 4-2 victory over Cubs.
Ducky Medwick and Johnny Mize, Cards—Medwick doubled and singled, batting in three runs; Mize hit homer and single, as Cards whipped Reds 14-11.

TRADE TRENDS ARE UNEVEN

WEATHER CONDITIONS IN COUNTRY HANDICAP SEASONAL CLIMB

New York, April 23. (P)—Trade and business continued to move unevenly this week, Dun & Bradstreet said today in the weekly review.

"Retail distribution failed to reach its seasonal degree of acceleration," the agency said, "lacking the stimulus of favorable weather, although the advantage over the previous year was widened."

"This disturbed buying in wholesale markets, as orders were under the expected volume and placing of future commitments was slowed."

"Led by the divisions which resumed capacity schedules following adjustment of labor disputes, the inclination of industrial operations was extended."

The agency estimated National retail sales at from 8 to 10 per cent above the comparative 1936 period. Only a few leading centers failed to equal last week's sales total.

Percentage increases over 1936 in the major geographic regions: New England 12 to 16; East 6 to 22; Middle West 15 to 20; Northwest 14 to 24; South 17 to 23; Southwest 14 to 15; and Pacific Coast, 12 to 20.

He Said Darn.
Mount Vernon, Mo., April 23. (P)—A Lawrence County farmer found a flat tire and a parking ticket on his car when he came back from a store. He fixed the tire. Backing out, he smashed his own and another car's fenders. When he opened the door to see the damage, a 20-pound sack of sugar fell out and burst.

Facilities for Employment Aid Are Discussed

Editor's Note: This is the seventh of a series of articles prepared by the Vernon Chamber of Commerce Employment Committee to acquaint workers and employers with facilities provided to serve them by the Texas State Employment Service, 1618 Fannin Street. Benefits the employee and employer might expect to receive through the service; and how the service operates and by whom it is operated will be explained.

I am a young person 18 years of age. I have finished high school, but have never been able to find employment. As I have had no experience, how can the Texas State Employment Service help me to find work?

If you will call at the office for registration, an interviewer will gladly discuss your problem with you. Talk freely with him, and tell him all about yourself; just what you did in school and what you would like to do. The interviewer may be able to make very helpful suggestions, for the employment service receives many requests for apprentices and learners in various industries. One of these might be directly in line with your ability and desire.

I am past 55 years of age. I am not strong physically and cannot do heavy work. I have been looking for something I can do for months, but there does not seem to be anything open. What can be done to help me?

The employment service will find the same limits on your work opportunity you have found, but through its wider contacts it might be able to find an opening where you have found none. A number of such placements have been made, and your application will receive as careful consideration as that of any other person.

I am a skilled workman, but there is no work in my line available in this locality. What opportunity do I have?

The service does not operate in this locality alone, but covers all Texas and the United States as well. It has received requests for the clearance of labor to distant as well as nearby points, and might at any time be able to refer you to some town or city where there is a shortage of workmen as skilled as you.

My work is of a seasonal nature and I am employed only about six months each year. The rest of the time I have to pick up odd jobs. What chance do I have?

Through its Occupational Research Division the service has found that many occupations in one seasonal industry are really the same as occupations in another industry. Your work might have been so nearly the same as that in an opening in some other industry that you will be referred to steady employment.

Final Rites at Spur Saturday For Rev. Stewart

Last rites for Rev. R. A. Stewart, a Methodist pastor and presiding elder in the Northwest Texas Conference since 1908, will be conducted Saturday morning in the First Methodist Church of Spur by Rev. O. P. Clark, pastor of the St. Paul Methodist Church of Abilene. Other Methodist pastors will assist. Rev. Stewart, a former resident of Vernon, died Wednesday night in Shamrock, where he had been pastor since November. Interment will be in the Spur Cemetery.

Services in Shamrock this morning were conducted by Dr. G. H. Harley of Clarendon. He was assisted by Rev. T. S. Barcus of Clarendon and Rev. E. R. Wallace of Shamrock. Immediately after the rites in Shamrock, the body was carried to Spur, where it will lie in state at the First Methodist Church until services Saturday morning.

Rev. Stewart is survived by the widow, a daughter, Mrs. M. B. Thomas of Anderson, Texas; a son, Frederick Stewart, a University of Texas student; a brother, Judge Lawrence Stewart of Winchester, Tenn.; and four sisters, Mrs. L. N. Spear and Mrs. Mattie Anderson of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mrs. James Adkins of Gastonia, N. C.; and Mrs. Robert Mauney of Phoenix, Ariz. Members of Rev. Stewart's family were met at Spur by Judge Stewart, Mrs. Spear and other relatives.

Since coming to Texas from Tennessee in 1908, Rev. Stewart had resided in the following cities: in serving as pastor or presiding elder: Ellsville, Spur, Crowell, Snyder, Canyon, Miami, Sweetwater, Stamford, Vernon, Abilene, Wellington, and Shamrock. He was presiding elder of the Vernon district four years prior to November, 1935. He was born in Dunlap, Tenn., Dec. 11, 1876. In Tennessee, he was pastor at Dunlap, Mountain City and Johnson City, and was president of Princeton College. He was a graduate of Pryor Institute, Emory and Henry College, and Vanderbilt University.

ADVERTISING PLAN DELAYED

HOUSE FAILS TO CONCUR IN ACT TO PUBLICIZE TEXAS ASSETS

Austin, April 23. (P)—A proposed constitutional amendment to spend $1,000,000 a year for five years to advertise Texas today rested in the House having failed of approval by a bare margin on first test.

Bearing the Senate's approval, the proposal yesterday drew a 66 to 67 vote where 100 were necessary for submission to the people.

Two additional hospitals for the insane, one in east and the other in West Texas would be built with an appropriation of $1,634,000 passed by the Senate. The board of Control would locate the institution.

Padre Island would be made a State park, with bridges from the mainland 125 miles apart, by a bill passed by the House. Advocates said the beach road would be the longest of its kind in the country. The bridges would be paid for out of tolls.

The House also passed to the Senate bills to:

Exclude children of soldiers who died in the World War from tuition at State institutions of higher learning; require manufacturers to mark the weight of commodities on packages; eliminate regulation of height of light poles in rural sections, and permit towns of 2,000 and less population to pay mayors a maximum salary of $600 a year.

Engrossed by the lower chamber were bills to: Permit adoption of abandoned children without consent of parents; make theft of cotton and cottonseed a felony with penalties ranging from a fine of $1 to five years imprisonment; set Jan. 1 as the date for all district and State officials not affected by constitutional regulation to take office, and permit a peace officer in close pursuit of a fugitive to enter Texas.

HUNGER STRIKE PROVES FATAL

BOY, 17, DIES IN PRISON AT MALESTER AFTER REFUSING TO EAT

McAlester, Okla., April 23. (P)—Jack Scott, 17, died in the McAlester penitentiary hospital today of paralysis, Dr. T. H. McCauley, prison physician, said today. He had refused to eat for 12 days.

The youth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Scott of St. Louis, arrived at the prison Monday night.

At Ada, Sheriff Clyde Kaiser said Scott's parents visited him at the county jail about three weeks ago.

"After they left, he became cross and irritated," Sheriff Kaiser said. "After a while he refused to eat."

"We tried to force milk and other liquid food down him but he refused to eat it."

"We couldn't do anything with him so we took him to McAlester."

Scott was captured without resistance on a hilltop near Stringtown not far from a bullet scarred automobile last Jan. 30, after a gun battle the night before in which Alvin Jones, Pontotoc County Deputy Sheriff, was slain and Allen Stanfield, Deputy U. S. Marshal, was wounded.

Scott was sought in connection with a robbery.

SCRAP IRON HANDLERS AT TEXAS CITY ON STRIKE

Texas City, April 23. (P)—Manual laborers demanding 50 cents an hour and an eight-hour day in handling scrap iron were on strike here today at the David J. Joseph Company.

Strikers said the walkout was caused by the dismissal of a worker who advocated higher wages and shorter hours. Scrap iron, bound for nations in the midst of vast rearmament programs, has been this port's most valuable export in recent months.

OPPONENTS OF WAR CELEBRATE.

Those Who Defied Popular Clamor in 1917 Hold Celebration Twenty Years Later.

A strange sort of reunion was held in Washington recently when a celebration was held commemorating the twentieth anniversary of the entrance of the United States into the World War. Members of the 65th Congress who voted against the declaration of war celebrated with a dinner.

There are several interesting things about these who were almost universally reviled twenty years ago. Of the eleven, three are still members of Congress, a relatively large number from any group of eleven to stay in office over a period of twenty years. It is especially interesting because their votes against the declaration of war made them conspicuous, and all the power of public opinion, inflamed by war passion, was turned on.

Most conspicuous in the group is Senator Norris of Nebraska, who has earned for himself a unique fame as an independent. Of all the so-called independents of the present generation he is the most independent of all. He may be wrong, but he is never subservient. He defied popular clamor in the World War period. He has defied his party leadership so often and so vigorously he can hardly be called a Republican, but when President Roosevelt tried to adopt him into the Democratic fold he soon found him among the most effective critics of Administration policies.

The others haven't fared so well, but they deserve honorable mention because they displayed a quality altogether too rare in present-day public life—the courage to cast a vote dictated by conscience rather than expediency.

STRIKE LOSSES INCREASE.

Working Days Lost in First Two Months of This Year Much Greater Than in 1936.

Figures on strikes and the number of workers involved for January and February show a marked increase over the same period of 1936. Labor Department reports show a pronounced gain in the number of hours lost, though the increase in the number of strikes is not great.

However, time lost is the real basis for measuring the effect of labor trouble. Time means wages to the workers and the wages of workers determine the level of buying power in the communities affected. For this reason unusual significance is attached to the difference in the losses in hours.

During the first two months of 1936 there were 315 strikes with a loss of 1,388,746 days. In the same period this year there were 390 strikes with a loss of 4,185,000 days. This means that the losses in strikes the first two months of 1937 were more than three times the losses for the same period in 1936.

It would seem from this kind of a start losses in wages from labor troubles this year will be an item of considerable importance. Whether the gains obtained by workers will eventually offset these losses is an uncertain item. At any rate gains over a ten-year period are expensive for those who pay now.

Unfortunately the labor situation at the present time is troubled with short-sightedness on the part of many employers and employees, aggravated by those who trade on other people's welfare.

MACHINES MAKE MORE JOBS.

Investigation in Rayon Factory Shows Fallacy of Widely-Held Opinion.

A theory which has been accepted by many people, especially during the darker days of the depression and to an appreciable degree even today, is that a vast surplus of labor has been built up which can never be reduced because of the replacement of men by machines. A study conducted by the financial editor of the Christian Science Monitor has definitely exposed the fallacy of this belief.

The investigation was prompted by a rumor that a large rayon factory had developed a machine so efficient it gave rise to the belief that one day the work of the entire factory might be done by one man. The facts disclosed were that a new process in one department had reduced personnel 25 per cent. The saving had been translated into reduced prices and sales promptly rose to such a degree that it was necessary to rehire, not only the 25 per cent which had been dropped, but a number of additional workers.

While these facts do not prove that there is no labor problem created by increasingly efficient machinery, it does prove that the machine, as it has been in many other instances, provides rather than destroys jobs.

Another way to break up a sitdown strike is to remove the chairs when the broadcast ball game reaches the seventh inning.

"A bronze eagle disappeared from a New York lawn." It cannot be the one now believed hovering over Washington, as that is blue.

The word "Ca'canny," used by Justice McReynolds, turned out to have been a Scotch term meaning, "To drive carefully." To most autoists, that's Greek.

A sheriff couldn't understand how Detroit girl strikers withstood a long tear gas barrage, not knowing that girls feel the better for a good cry.

ENGINEERS HOLD MEET

PROFESSIONAL PROBLEMS DRAW ATTENTION IN SPRING SESSION

San Antonio, April 23. (AP)—Four hundred of the Nation's foremost engineers were here Thursday for the eighty-fourth Spring session of the American Society of Engineers, and to discuss technical problems of the profession.

One session devoted itself to highway problems, another to irrigation, and a third to surveying and mapping.

Use of motion pictures in highway surveying for the first time was related to the highway section by C. D. Wells, engineer in the State Highway Department at Austin.

When a State highway into the Chisos Mountains for the Big Bend International Park was projected in 1916, there was not time for a regular survey, he said. Motion pictures were taken of existing roads and trails, and these were combined with U. S. Geological Survey maps to select a location for the new highway.

Other speakers before the highway section included G. G. Edwards, manager of the Texas Highway Planning Survey, Austin, and John B. Blair, division engineer for the State Highway Department at Bryan.

Brunk's Artists To Offer Stage Shows Next Week

Arrangements for the opening here Monday night of the Henry L. Brunk's comedians have been completed, according to Glen D. Brunk who is now in Vernon. The Vernon Volunteer Fire Department is sponsoring the week's series of stage shows.

Mundee and June, jugglers; Palma Dunn in modern dance numbers; Klink Lemmons, accordionist; Johnnie Coupe, xylophonist; Buddy Brown, crooner; Duke Arthur, comedian; Herman Munda, trick bicyclist will be featured in addition to an unusually large number of other artists. Brunk's broadcasting orchestra will furnish music at each performance.

A comedy-drama, "Girl Meets Boy" will be the first in the series of performances. A program entirely new in every respect will be offered each night, Mr. Brunk said.

Accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Brunk to Vernon will be their 10-year-old daughter, June Alice, who will attend a Vernon school during their stay here. June Alice has a record of attendance at approximately 120 schools in Texas, Colorado, California, Oklahoma and New Mexico and despite her constantly changing environment she is an unusually good scholar.

LOCATING DEVICE FOR OIL WELLS DESCRIBED

Philadelphia, April 23. (AP)—Development of a scientific "diving rod" to locate oil wells was reported Thursday to the annual meeting of the American Philosophical Society.

The device operates by analyzing gases found above and immediately below the ground in oil-bearing lands.

It is the mass spectrophotograph, a delicate instrument heretofore used to separate isotopes, which are the component parts of the same chemical elements but have different weights.

The instrument's use as a "diving rod" was described by its inventor, Dr. Walker Bleakley, assistant professor of physics at Princeton University.

Because the device is so sensitive, Dr. Bleakley said it can detect rare gases which oil men say are indicative of the presence of oil far beneath the earth's surface.

Although not yet put into practical use in this way, Dr. Bleakley said he was "sure" the principle would work in practice.

JOBLESS AID SPEAKER TO ADDRESS TEXAS EDITORS

Amarillo, April 23.—Joe K. Wells, state field supervisor for the Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission, will address the annual convention of the West Texas Press Association here on Saturday, April 24. Clyde Warwick of Canyon, secretary of the Association, announced today.

Wells will discuss the provisions and administration of the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act, outlining its relation to the Federal Social Security Act and explaining the amendments to the Texas act recently passed by the Texas Legislature.

A. & M. COLLEGE TO OFFER JEFFERSON COUNTY LEASES

College Station, April 23.—At public auction to be held at College Station at 11 o'clock the morning of April 24, the board of directors of Texas A. & M. College will offer for sale the oil and gas rights on 100 acres of land at Amelia, Jefferson County, about four or five miles from Beaumont. The land in question is known as the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station No. 4 and is a part of the A. Savory League, being in the vicinity of the Amelia field production.

Coleman Speaker Selected.

Coleman, April 23.—Wallace Dingus, senior in Coleman High School, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dingus of this city, will represent Coleman in the May 10-12, 1937, National Commerce convention in Brownwood. May 10-12, announcement of the selection was made by S. W. Cooper, secretary of the local chamber of Commerce.

RETAIL SALES INCREASE DURING MONTH IN TEXAS

Austin, April 23.—Sales, measured in dollars, of Texas department and specialty stores during March increased sharply over both the preceding month and the corresponding month last year, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Reports from 99 establishments show total sales 27.9 per cent over the preceding month and 20.4 per cent over the like month last year. Aggregate sales during the first three months were 14.8 per cent above those of the corresponding period last year.

The increase in sales over last year exceeded that of the State during the two comparable months as well as the year to date in El Paso, Houston, Lubbock, and Port Arthur.

MAYOR ORDERS CARNIVAL GIRLS TO DON CLOTHING

San Antonio, April 23. Girl entertainers in two carnival shows Thursday were ordered by Mayor C. K. Quinn to don clothing.

The mayor instructed Chief of Police Owen Kilgus to station policemen inside the shows to see that his orders were complied with, following complaints by the Legion of Decency of the Knights of Columbus and several ministers.

Quinn said the shows exhibiting nude women were the "Hawaiian Revue" and "Night Life in Paris."

Informing another show displayed an undraped fan dancer, chief Kilgus defended: "That's art."

NOT

AFRAID to Love

CAST OF CHARACTERS
JOAN BARRETT, heroine, secretary to John Hendry.
JOHN HENDRY, mining investment head.
BOB ANDREWS, Hendry's junior partner and Joan's fiancé.
SYBIL HENDRY, socialite, John Hendry's niece and Joan's rival in love.
PHILIP HENDRY, Sybil's brother.
DOROTHY STARK, Joan's childhood friend.
CHARLES NORTON, California mining promoter.

Yesterday: Joan refuses to marry Bob because of a secret in her life, and Sybil, learning of this, plots to bare that secret.

CHAPTER III

From the window of her room in the Green Hills Inn, Joan watched the eastern sky brighten to a warm orange as the sun rose slowly above the hills. The streets were quiet now. Every last merry-maker had found his way home; the last echo of shrill horns and cowbells had subsided.

Downstairs, the Inn was utterly still. Later on, weary porters would view the havoc wrought by the festivities and attempt to tidy the lounges before early guests appeared for breakfast. But there was time for that. The steeple clock had not yet chimed six-thirty. Joan would hear it presently, as she had heard every quarter-hour chime since four-thirty, when Bob had kissed her and wished her happy dreams at the door of her room.

Happy dreams! How easy it was for Bob to suggest that. He did not know how terrible dreams might be. Life to him was all sunshine and love and faith in the goodness of tomorrow. For him there was no ugly yesterday which still conjured in a tired mind nightmares of misery and despair and fear, casting their menacing shadows over every hope for the future, and filling each tomorrow with uncertainty and terror.

Watching the sun climb slowly over the horizon, Joan remembered another sunrise, ten long years before—or was it rather, ten long hideous eternities? Weeks and months and years of dreary yesterdays, which even today stretched out their memories a thousand years into the future.

She had been only 13 then, but today the picture was as clear in her mind as if it were still happening, as indeed it had truly happened a thousand times since that morning.

Once more she was back there, standing in the window of another hotel, holding tightly to her mother's icy hand, watching with terror as that same sun slowly rose to light the sun that day had been a flaming ball of fire, creeping up over the hills to rob their lives of all that had made the previous years bright and gay and worthwhile.

It had been in California. The Inn from which they watched was close to the forbidding walls of San Quentin prison. And the sunrise for which they waited in such helpless terror had proclaimed the hour when Thomas Barrett would be "hanged by voice carried across the room to Joan. "I'm positive of it. My father was on the jury. The Barrett case—don't you remember it? He was hanged at San Quentin."

Joan stood transfixed as the whippers flew through the room. She watched Dorothy's mother beckon to her husband and take him out into the kitchen. She knew well enough what Mrs. Starke would say. Everybody in San Francisco had said it, too.

"Of course she's a pretty little girl, John. But we can't have her associating with Dorothy. It's in her blood, you know, to kill. Her father was a murderer. There's no telling what she may do..."

So, a few minutes later, Mr. Starke offered to see her home. He was very kind about it. But the party was over. Dorothy had not cut her birthday cake. And when Mr. Starke left her at her own door, he did not ask her to come over and see them again.

The next day, they left Seattle. They went to Denver. They could easily lose themselves in Denver where there were so many transients. Transients like her mother, who were thin and weak and very, very tired, and who came for the benefits of the high altitude.

But they did not stay long in Denver. Their landlady boasted a sensational knowledge of murder trials. She kept a book of clippings. Some day she would write a detective novel. And she never forgot a face. "My but you look familiar, Mrs. Barrett! I'm sure I've seen your face somewhere!"

They went to Chicago. Chicago was a metropolis of several million people. And it was 2,000 miles away from San Francisco. Nobody would ever recognize them now. Nobody must, for there was so little money left.

They could not afford another escape. And Joan's mother was too ill even to look for work. It was Joan, now about 17, who found a job in one of the enormous department stores. She loved the thrill of working; she felt tremendous pride in being able to help her mother share the burden. This was truly a new beginning.

But Chicago, at the moment, was lacking in sensation. And the next Sunday, the pictures of Sheila Barrett and her daughter, Joan, were splashed across the center spread of one of the leading dailies. There were other women and other children, too. "Orphans of the Racket," this paper called them. It was the story of what happens to the widows and orphans of condemned criminals.

So the girls in the store recognized Joan. Even the name was the same. That was one thing Joan's mother would never do. She would never forsake the name Thomas Barrett had given her. She was still proud of it.

The head of Joan's department suggested that she seek another position. He was kind, even as Mr. Starke had been in Seattle. The gossip, he explained, would do her no good. There might even occur small threats or minor misadventures, and suspicion would of a certainty fall upon her. It was unfortunate—terribly unfortunate—but what could the store do?

Joan did not care about the store. She did not care about anything now, except that her mother was too ill even to sit up in bed. Her heart was weak, so the doctor said. He did not know that for five years, her heart had been slowly breaking...

Within two months, Joan was all alone in the world. With their last few dollars, she sent her mother's body back to California, to lie beside the husband with whom her spirit had died.

After that, it was not so hard to live in Chicago. People forgot Joan Barrett and the newspapers unearthed newer sensations. Jobs were easy to find, for she was bright and pretty. Soon she was earning enough money to live comfortably. But the shadow of the past still hung over Chicago; Joan thought of New York.

On her twenty-first birthday, she gave up her job, drew out her savings, and came East.

New York proved a friendly refuge. Almost immediately, and without references, John Hendry engaged her as a stenographer in his investment concern. Within four months she was his personal secretary.

Two years passed quickly, and the tragedy had not caught up with her. Perhaps the world had forgotten it. Ten years is a long time.

"Some day," her mother had always told her, "a good man would ask you to marry him, Joan. That will be the beginning of life for you. Under the protection of his name, you can forget all that has happened to us."

Joan had dreamed of it, too. What she had not realized was how intensely she might love this man who came along. And loving Bob Andrews, she found fresh agony in the thought that he might discover her secret and shrink in horror from her. So for almost a year, she had put off his proposals...

The steeple clock chimed the six-thirty half hour. Joan turned her back on the sunrise and walked over to the bed. There was no turning back now. She was going to marry Bob.

He would never know what had happened 10 years before. She would never tell him, and if the story came to light, she would deny it. She could never risk the thought of his lying beside her in the dark, thinking, as those others had always thought: "Her father was a murderer. It's in her blood, too, to kill."

She knelt down beside the bed for a moment before getting into it. "Dear God," she prayed, "Give me this last chance. Don't ever let him know... Please God!"

If your car is only half there in the pinches... if it no longer runs like new... if it is sluggish in traffic and weak on hills... why not try a tankful of the gasoline that has made a reputation for producing improved performance?

Give your engine a real chance to "do its stuff" with Phillips 66 Poly Gas—the modern, extra-energy motor fuel. It is always matched to your weather more accurately than others. Made-to-order for the precise climatic conditions your car will encounter in your vicinity.

Day in and day out, regardless of temperature changes, every drop of this higher test gasoline burns clean. Burns completely, without waste or knock.

You actually feel your motor deliver more pep and power. You note the extra mileage. Besides, your motor stays fast, smooth, and flexible, with fewer carbon-scraping and valve-grinding jobs.

This means a big saving in money, as well as far more pleasure in driving. No wonder so many millions of car owners feel that Phillips 66 Poly Gas... which costs nothing extra... is the greatest gasoline value.

CHANGE YOUR OIL... NOW!

Drain and refill with Phillips 66 Motor Oil... for summer lubrication. Because it is the finest lubricant refined by Phillips, we recommend it as "the world's finest oil for your motor."

CIO RETAINS STRIKE RIGHT

FIFTY MEMBERS SECURED AT FIRST MEETING IN FORT WORTH

Fort Worth, April 23. (P)—A Committee for Industrial Organization warning it would never surrender its right to strike despite an official condemnation of sit-downs, accompanied the first CIO move into this oil territory last night.

Fifty petroleum workers were taken into the CIO fold at a meeting in which W. B. Smith, Kilgore, said: "We never planned any sit-down strikes in Texas and we don't think any will be necessary. The only sitting down we want to do is around a conference table. There might be strikes pulled—we'll never give up our right to strike—but not until we've exhausted every other effort for mediation."

Governor Allred recently warned, at the inception of the CIO drive to organize 100,000 Texas oil field workers, that the State would tolerate no sit-down strikes.

Two hundred workers present at the meeting heard Smith say "some of you may not join now but you will within 90 days, because you're going to be organized."

Smith is secretary of the East Texas District Council of Oil Workers. The union into which the 50 men were taken was the International Association of Oil Field, Gas Well and Refinery Workers. Many at the meeting already were members.

Smith derided the American Federation of Labor, CIO foe, in its attempt to organize the oil industry. He said the A. F. of L. didn't have the necessary money.

GALVESTON COURT HEARS ARGUMENT ON GAS TAXES

Galveston, April 22. (P)—An injunction case from Anderson County involving the question of whether or not the product saved from natural gas when run through a separator is subject to the State's four-cent tax on motor fuel was argued here yesterday before the first court of Civil Appeals.

The case is styled Rogers et al. v. Daniel Oil and Royalty Company. Assistant Attorney General Pat Neff, Jr., arguing for the appellant, contended that the distillate is usable as a motor fuel and therefore subject to the tax. R. W. Willford of Wortham argued for the appellees that the product is crude oil and not subject to the tax.

CROWELL JUNIOR CLASS IS HOST AT BANQUET

Crowell, April 23.—The junior class of Crowell High School was host to the Seniors, Faculty and several others Thursday night in the annual junior-senior banquet. The "Old Southern" event was held in the basement of the Methodist Church. The Southern theme was carried out in program numbers and decorations.

James Long, junior class president, was master of ceremonies for the program, which was featured with an address by Superintendent I. T. Graves. Glen Don Reeder, senior president, responded to the address of welcome by the junior president. Other numbers included a tap dance by Paula Plunkett; songs by Misses Jenny D. Coffey and Thelma Lois Moore, the Seniors' last will by Miss Effie Griffin, and a brief talk by Mack Boswell of Vernon.

TRIO CONVICTED IN USE OF RECORDS FOR RADIO

Laredo, April 23. (P)—The Federal Government was victor today in a court effort to convict three men of illegally making records in Texas and taking them to Nuevo Laredo, Mexico for broadcast over station XENT.

Norman Baker, operator of the station, E. R. Rood, astrologist, and Roy Richardson, his assistant, were found guilty and sentenced yesterday by Judge T. M. Kennerly. Baker was given four months in jail and fined $2,000; Rood, four months in jail and $500; and Richardson a day in jail. The defendants appealed.

WHAT CONGRESS IS DOING

(By the Associated Press)

Senate: In recess. Judiciary committee ends hearings on Roosevelt court bill. House: Considers agriculture appropriations bill.

Ways and means committee continues hearings on railroad retirement pension tax bill.

Rivers and harbors committee continues hearing on Florida ship canal. Agriculture sub-committee continues study of sugar quota legislation.

Thursday. Senate sent half billion dollar naval appropriations bill to White House. House heard general debate on agriculture appropriations. La Follette committee heard more charges of anti-union activity in Harlan County, Ky. coal fields.

Thankful. Minneapolis, April 23. (P)—A grinning prisoner and an obdurate judge got together on the matter of a workhouse term. When John Jenkins, 36, Negro, was sentenced to 90 days for drunkenness, he grinned. "Might as well make it all Summer, Judge," said the Negro. "Thirty days more for contempt of court," Judge W. A. Anderson rejoined. "Might as well make that 90, too," said Jenkins, still grinning. The judge did—for a total of 180 days.

INDIANA TROOPS TO CAMP AT PAN AMERICAN EVENT

Fort Sam Houston, April 23.—Approximately 400 Regular Army troops at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, in the Fifth Corps Area, will occupy the Army Camp, Stephen F. Austin, on the grounds of the Greater Texas and Pan American Exposition at Dallas this Summer.

Due to the fact that a test of a proposed new infantry division will be in progress at Fort Sam Houston and other Eighth Corps Area posts and stations, no troops of this corps area will participate in the exposition.

The majority of the troops from Fort Benjamin Harrison will be from the Eleventh Infantry.

POLICE ACT DRAWS FIRE

FORT WORTH FIGHTS LAW PROVIDING MINIMUM WAGES FOR COPS

(By the Associated Press)

Texas municipalities scratched in their treasuries Friday to find funds to comply with the recently enacted minimum wage law for policemen and firemen or joined in a direct attack on the legislation.

Fort Worth led off with a fight against the law itself, while other cities sought ways and means of paying. City officials at Fort Worth sent representatives to Austin to seek an amendment to the law exempting that municipality. They said compliance with the law, which became effective Monday with Governor Allred's signature, would leave no alternative but to reduce police and fire personnel 20 per cent to avoid increased salary costs of $140,000 to $225,000.

Under the law, cities of 75,000 must pay policemen and firemen a minimum of $150 a month. Policemen and firemen could not be worked more than 12 hours a day or 72 hours a week without time and a half overtime pay. A six-day week in all cities of more than 25,000 was provided. The law required a two-week vacation with pay in cities of more than 30,000.

YOUNG HUSBAND FATALLY SHOT AT HANDLEY HOME

Fort Worth, April 23. (P)—An 18-year-old wife, whom Wilburn Jenkins, 29, secretly married last Sept. 20, grieved Friday for her husband who was found shot to death at his home in Handley Wednesday.

The bride was formerly Miss Geraldine Howard, freshman at North Texas State Teachers College in Denton, where she learned of the tragedy. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Howard, Fort Worth, who knew of their daughter's marriage only after her husband was killed.

Justice of the Peace W. H. Powers of Arlington is conducting an inquest and will return his verdict today. A brother, C. R. Jenkins, was of the opinion that Jenkins accidentally shot himself with a rifle preparatory to cleaning it on the back porch.

Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Jenkins, was a former member of the Handley High School football and track teams, and graduated at that school in 1933. He was a native of Handley and a member of the Handley Baptist Church.
